CONCEPT

Quizás, Quizás, Quizás Eau de Parfum was created in 2007 for a seductive woman who is self-confident, with a certain touch of sophistication, independent, fun and a bit daring.

Two years later, in 2009, the Quizás, Quizás, Quizás woman continues her game of seduction from a fresher, lighter and more natural perspective with the launch of Quizás, Quizás, Quizás Eau de Toilette. A new olfactory interpretation... The game of seduction in a more subtle way...

Now, Loewe pays special homage to the Spanish seduction creating a limited edition of Quizás, Quizás, Quizás Eau de Toilette. An amazing design inspired by Spanish passion, luxury and tradition:

The game of the seduction*

DESIGN

The mauve shade of the bottle gives the perfume a natural, warm, intimist touch. The taurine motif that adorns this perfume is inspired by the Matador Collection scarf. It takes us to a world of passion and bravery very much in keeping both with the values of the Spanish nature and the brand itself.

A bottle brimming with nobility in its pure, crystalline glass combined with a homing instinct and the most passionate desire.

FRAGRANCE

A fragrance that unites top-quality natural ingredients, starting with its Italian Tangerine top note, moving on to a floral heart of Absolute of Bulgarian Rose and Sambac Jasmine, and ending up with a wooden base of Madagascar Patchouli and Musk.

The perfect combination to create an unforgettable branding iron.
