Statement re attendees lists for TFWA World Exhibition & Conference

It has been brought to our attention that a number of people have been contacted by individuals not connected to TFWA offering the option to purchase details of participants at this year's TFWA World Exhibition & Conference. Such offers are usually fraudulent and should be ignored.

Please note that full details of attendees are available free of charge to exhibitors as soon as their registration has been confirmed and can be accessed here:
<http://www.tfwaexhibitiondirectory.com/login>.

In addition all TFWA exhibitors and visitors will also be given a printed copy of the Official Guide on site which offers a comprehensive directory of exhibiting companies and their brands arranged by sector, product and alphabetical listing.
