BACKGROUND AND EXPERIENCE

Kerrie Mather is the Chief Executive Officer of Macquarie Airports, a Macquarie Bank managed fund which invests in airports globally. Macquarie Airports listed on the Australian Stock Exchange with a market capitalisation of A$1 billion in April 2002. Today, Macquarie Airports is a top 50 company in Australia with a market capitalisation of A$4.5 billion.

At the time it listed Macquarie Airports owned seed investments in Bristol and Birmingham Airport in the United Kingdom. Since then Macquarie Airports has successfully bid for and invested in Sydney Airport in June 2002, Rome Airport in March 2003, Brussels Airport in December 2004 and Copenhagen Airports in February 2005.

Macquarie Airports is now the second largest owner and manager of privatised airports in the world. Its airports have a combined passenger throughput of over 110 million passengers per annum.

Under Kerrie's leadership, the Macquarie Airports team of airport and investment banking specialists engage in all aspects of the airport businesses seeking to improve the commercial and financial performance of each airport.

As a result over the past 12 months all the airports in the portfolio have delivered strong earnings growth and investors in Macquarie Airports have reaped the benefit through an increasing distribution profile, as well as enjoying strong security price performance.

Kerrie is a Director of Sydney Airport, Brussels Airport & the Rome investment company.

Kerrie also has extensive Investment Banking experience. Prior to establishing Macquarie Airports, Kerrie worked on a wide variety of transactions over an 18 year period ranging from Corporate Structuring & financing, project advisory, trade sales, valuations, and debt and equity raisings for a range of clients and projects. In particular Kerrie spent a number of years originating and executing transport infrastructure transactions and investments, and developed the Bank's specialist focus on airports. This included a range of roles on airport acquisitions, and financial and business advisory roles.
